“Exist is not thinking: it is being remembered.”
 (Teixeira de Pascoas)

On the trail of Amadeo de Souza-Cardoso, we discover a city made up of convent made sweet pastries, restaurants that serve the flavors of the region paired with good wine and where art and literature are around every corner. The experience will make your mouth water, as you'll use your hands to cook convent made sweets and taste them. In a tavern you will also taste typical Portuguese products paired by our light, fresh and elegant Vinho Verde. Visit Amarante!
